WORKSESSION**

4. Receive Briefing on Lewisville Schools Bond Election.

Dr. Lori Rapp, Lewisville Independent School District Superintendent, provided an update on the 2023 LISD Bond Election and also provided statistical data on the District.

Dr. Rapp stated that LISD is one of the top 20 largest districts in the state. With over 47,000 students it covers 127 square miles and has 69 campuses. Statistics for the Class of 2024 were reviewed and demographics were provided. She stated that declining enrollment and lack of increases in state funding over the past several years prompted the District to establish a Community Efficiency Committee to evaluate the potential for closing some elementary campuses. As a result, five campuses will close after the current school year ends.

Dr. Rapp provided a video reflecting the uses of some of the bond funds approved in the 2023 election. It included playground equipment, furniture, flooring, casework, technology updates, and other facility improvements. Information on the tax rate supporting the bond sale was provided.

Dr. Rapp advised that the state Legislature is considering school funding in this current session. She advised that the basic allotment per student needs to be increased by $1,340 to support students in the future.

Clarifying questions were raised by Council regarding the percentage of economically disadvantaged students (those who qualify for free or reduced lunches) and inflationary impacts. Mayor Babick inquired about how the Career Center successes are measured. Dr. Rapp stated that it is based on the number of industry based certifications received by students in the career centers. She noted that some students will go directly into a career and others will go on to enroll in related college degree programs.

Discussion regarding the criteria used to evaluate school closings followed. Dr. Rapp advised that ten criteria were used in the evaluation process and the results were posted online.

5. Receive Information From Community Group Regarding Juneteenth.

Mayor Pro Tem Richard Fleming advised that a Juneteenth Committee was formed consisting of 13 volunteers from the community. He provided a list of their names and expressed his appreciation, adding that the group has met four times.

Mayor Pro Tem Fleming advised that that two events have been planned as follows:

- 1) “Juneteenth- Telling Your Story” at the Carrollton Josey Ranch Library; June 15th, 1-3 p.m.
- 2) “Juneteenth Celebration Food and Jazz Concert” at the Downtown Square; June 21st, 5 p.m.

The concert is being held in conjunction with the Shirley Demus-Tarpley Philanthropic Organization.

6. Mayor and Council Reports And Information Sharing.

Council reviewed their recent activities and upcoming events.

Mayor Babick stated that a work session is being planned to brief the Council regarding Transit 2.0 by the Council of Governments (COG) and DART. The date is pending. He also described some handouts provided to the Council.

Diana Vaughn, Chief Financial Officer, provided an update on the March 4th storm debris collection efforts.

Worksession concluded at 6:51p.m.
