

WHEREAS, the City of Carrollton Public Works department manages the City's streets, storm water, traffic operations, drinking water and wastewater systems to enhance the quality of life for the Carrollton community; and

WHEREAS, public works services are an integral part of our citizens' everyday lives and the health, safety and comfort of this community greatly depends on services; and

WHEREAS, this year, the theme of public works week is "Community Begins Here," which represents the classic idea of stewardship focused on communities' sustainability; and

WHEREAS, the efficiency of the qualified and dedicated personnel who staff public works departments is directly influenced by the people's attitude and understanding of their importance of the work they perform;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Matthew Marchant, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Carrollton, do hereby proclaim May 17-23, 2015 as in the City of Carrollton and invite all our citizens to join me in becoming aware of the issues and activities involved in providing our public works and to recognize the contributions that public works make every day to our health, safety, comfort and overall quality of life.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Carrollton, Texas, this 19th day of May 2015.
